Dear Mr. Kindler,

The pieces I am enclosing are of uneven merit, as you will see, and various as well.

The Aachen cover with double-used Swiss stamp, vous en connaissez déjà l'histoire. De même, l'envoi aux unsteamed Unesco labels (vestigial gum) with United Nations stamps substitutings, et celui aux documentaires.

Y inclus ci-joints:

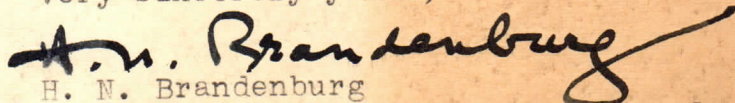

Philippines stamp posted in New York.
Stampless cover franked without postage-due.
Algeria postcard with Austrian postage due.
British stampless cover without postage-due stamps, but T-marked.
British cover with cut-square embossed imorint as stamp.
United Nations postal card with New York City postmark.
Ditto envelope so mailed by UN post office.clerk.(*)
U.S. envelope with Indian airmail label, (went through without state but only zip number).
Picture postcard from Maienfeld, Nov 23 1898, Ambulant.
" " " Altstätten, Nov 11 1899, Ambulant.
" " " Thusis, Apr 21 1901, Ambulant, with extra
Thusis mark and same date as Musiktag.
Two penalty postal cards, U. S.
Two " " " , C. Z.
Great Britain official envelope.

Please return any of these that do not fit into your collection or that are redundant. If you want only one Ambulant postal card, please keep the one from Altstätten, and return the others, which have other, separate interests, such as Musicday and UPU and maroon stamp instead of green. I mean if Ambulant is your sole interest; for their souvenir value is much greater.

(*) this was moreover missent to Fort George Station: see back.

The Bermuda 1s3d is the one with the Sandys corrected, i.e. without apostrophe after the y. The Besant stamp should have 1847. Also enclosed are the two Bodhisattva positions: the one with the arm outstretched ^{to} your right side is the error; and the misplaced I.E.F. overprint. The last is believed to have considerable error value, though not listed in Gibbons.

Very sincerely yours,

H. N. Brandenburg

P.S. If you do not want the stamps which I use on this envelope for postage, please save for me.
